

PERSONAL FINANCE > BANKING

Goldman 360

REVIEWED BY JULIA KAGEN | Updated Jun 25, 2018

What is Goldman 360

Goldman 360 is a business platform developed by Goldman Sachs that is widely used by investment managers to assist them with money management and maximizing trading performance. The Goldman 360 platform includes a research database that generates investment ideas and investment research. Other services include trade execution, order management and other portfolio calculation services.

BREAKING DOWN Goldman 360

Goldman Sachs is a multinational finance company that does business in investment banking, trading, securities and several other financial areas, including mergers and acquisitions, asset management, prime brokerage and securities underwriting. The company was found in 1869 by Marcus Goldman and joined the New York Stock Exchange in 1896.

Goldman Sachs is a market maker and a primary dealer in U.S. Treasury securities. Goldman Sachs also owns a direct bank called GS Bank USA. Investment management accounts for 18 percent of the company's revenues, and institutional client services accounted for 45 percent of the company's revenues in 2015.

Goldman Sachs Research and Market Analysis

commodities in 25 stock markets and 50 economies around the world. Investors and investment managers rely on these research reports to understand the economic trends and problems that affect the performance of their investment portfolios, and the companies, markets and industries available to them as investors and investment managers.

Goldman 360 with OneLogin

The Goldman 360 platform has partnered with OneLogin to enhance security and streamline the portal's user interface. OneLogin is a single sign-on (SSO) portal that allows users to access all of their web apps and cloud-based data using a single set of sign-on credentials. Strategies like multifactor authentication and strong password policies ensure that data stored behind the firewall remains secure, to increase productivity without sacrificing the safety of customer data.

Goldman 360 with OneLogin offers users a number of features, including:

- Easy integration with other directories, such as Active Directory, Google Apps, Workday or LDAP
- Real-time synchronization
- An easy-to-use mobile app to access the Goldman 360 platform from a smartphone or tablet
- Mobile identity management to make it easier for mobile users to log in to the platform
- Centralized access control to simplify audit trail creation and compliance reporting

Related Terms

eCash

eCash is an internet-based system that facilitates the transfer of funds anonymously. more

Signature Guarantee

A signature guarantee is a form of authentication, issued by a bank or other financial institution, which verifies the legitimacy of a signature and the signatory's overall request. more

Investment Banker

An investment banker is an individual who is primarily concerned with raising capital for corporations, governments or other entities. more

Paga

Paga is a mobile payment platform that allows its users to transfer money and make payments through their mobile devices. more